

LL2 Kindergarten Newsletter

January 13th, 2017

Important Dates & Reminders

- No school January 16th in honor of MLK day.
- All school mass on January 17th, you are welcome to attend.
- January 18th re-registration begins for current SAS families.
- Catholic Schools Week is fast approaching! Make sure you received the information from the Wednesday folder.
- End of quarter is January 20th report cards will be sent home on the 27th.
- Friday, February 24th is our Kindergarten retreat. Details on how you can get involved will be coming out soon.

Reading

Completed our unit on Frits and were introduced to a new friend Ettabetta. We also read "The Mitten" by Jan Brett and did a number of activities using that book.

Math

We continued working on our subtraction skill. We acted about story problems and used manipulatives to help solve problems.

Religion

We blessed our Classroom door this week.

Hearts are good.

Social Sciences

Snow, Snow, and more snow!

Writing

- *Printing with correct spacing.
- *Capitalization

Practice at home...

- *Practice zipping coats and tying shoes.
- *Writing using correct spacing between letters and words.
- *Practice sight words daily!
- *Practice sounding out and blending letter sounds.

Mon-Star of the Week

Kameron has a smile that can warm any heart! He is such a caring boy, always a good friend, and always doing his best!

New Sight Words

Review 2nd quarter sight words.

Next week...

No School Monday

All School Mass

End of Quarter