

LL2 Kindergarten Newsletter

January 27th, 2017

Important Dates & Reminders

- Catholic Schools Week begins January 29th
 - Sunday: Open House 11:00-2:00
 - Monday: Civic Leaders breakfast & Padua Band Concert
 - Tuesday: School Mass
 - Thursday: Pancake breakfast- Students may wear red, white and blue accents with regular uniforms
 - Friday: Cosmic Bingo & Winter Pep Rally – Students may wear spirit wear dress down apparel
- Friday, February 24th is our Kindergarten retreat. Details on how you can get involved will be coming out soon.
- Your child is welcome to bring in Valentines to share with classmates. We have 22 students. Please to not write classmates names on them, just have your child sign their name it makes distributing them much easier.

Reading

We met our last new friend Hot Rod. He loves creating and racing cars. We worked with the -an family and continued blending sounds to read words.

Math

We continued working on our addition and subtraction skills. We explored different ways to make numbers 6, 7, 8, and 9.

Religion

Hands are good.

Social Sciences

We learned about dental health. We read stories and watched videos on how to take care of or teeth.

Writing

- *Printing with correct spacing.
- *Capitalization

Practice at home...

- *Practice zipping coats and tying shoes.
- *Writing using correct spacing between letters and words.
- *Practice sight words daily!
- *Practice sounding out and blending letter sounds.

Mon-Star of the Week

Aubrey has an energy about her that is contagious. She is a vibrant little girl full of life, a joy to have in class.

New Sight Words

Next week...

Catholic Schools Week