

LL2 Kindergarten Newsletter

February 3rd, 2017

Important Dates & Reminders

- Wednesday, the 8th is the 100th day of school for Kindergarten! Please refer to the email previously sent out regarding special plans for the day.
- Your child is welcome to bring in Valentines to share with classmates. We have 22 students. Please to not write classmates names on them, just have your child sign their name it makes distributing them much easier.
- Scholastic book orders are due back Feb 17th.
- No School February 20th in honor of President's Day

Reading

We finished our last Superkid introduction. Next week we will be reading stories about a special club all our Superkids form together. We continued working with word families and blending sounds.

Math

We completed Lesson 9 on more addition and subtraction. Next week we will be moving on composing larger numbers.

Religion

We celebrated Catholic Schools Week!

Social Sciences

We learned about the tradition of the Groundhog. Did you know the groundhog extremely inaccurate....hmmm.

Writing

- *Printing with correct spacing.
- *Capitalization
- *Spelling simple words

Practice at home...

- *Practice zipping coats and tying shoes.
- *Writing using correct spacing between letters and words.
- *Practice sight words daily!
- *Practice sounding out and blending letter sounds.

Mon-Star of the Week

What would we do without our very own weatherman Adam?!?! He is always so concerned for others. His empathy and compassion is amazing!

New Sight Words

No, Four
Put, Would

Next week...

100th Day